COMPLAINT

Civil No.

Judge

Maughan

Plaintiff complains of Defendants as follows:

INTRODUCTION

1. This matter involves Jesse's law school career at Thomas Jefferson School of Law (TJSL) during 2006 through 2011.
2. Since the beginning of Jesse's attendance at TJSL, she has been the victim of various crimes including, but not limited to, harassment, intimidation, gender and age discrimination, defamation, slander, libel, intentional infliction of mental anguish and emotional distress, creation of hostile educational environment, violation of her due process and constitutional rights, violations of professional conduct, and unethical behavior.

3. In the first year of law school, Jesse was subjected to an assault by a male student in the law school parking lot. An ethics investigation was started. Jesse was falsely accused of vandalizing the male's car in retaliation for the assault. During the interrogation, Jesse was threatened and sexually harassed by Arnold Rosenberg, the interrogator.
4. Jesse completed a directed study project. She was falsely accused of plagiarism and an investigation was started. During the investigation, her due process rights were violated. Jesse's mothering skills and age were unethically questioned. The furtherance of her education and career were unreasonably and intentionally delayed. Jesse was lied to by faculty she trusted and whom defamed her to other faculty, professors, potential employers and her peers. After being coerced, under duress and intimidation, and without representation to assist her in her decision, Jesse accepted a proposal to resolve the alleged ethical violation.
5. For almost two years, Jesse fulfilled her obligations under the proposal, including finding a professor to supervise her on another directed study project, attending 5 hours of legal citation training and completing 5 hours of MCLE Ethics training. Jesse wrote multiple emails and when they were left unanswered, she followed them up with multiple voice messages and even requests for a face-to-face appointment as she was required under the proposal to get preapproval to meet her obligations. She NEVER received a response, from ANYONE she contacted about it. Therefore, Jesse did the ethical, professional thing she do and wrote a directed study paper, without any assistance, attended 5.5 hours of Ethics training in Utah via podcast, writing a summary of watch she watched and got them approved through the State Bar of California.

6. Jesse has attended sufficient legal study to be granted a graduation certificate reflecting at least a cumulative 2.5GPA and wrote a directed study paper worth of a passing grade. She is being unethically, unprofessionally, and illegally denied these.
7. Upon Jesse's demand that this be done, she has been threatened by Dean Hasl and treated with the utmost disrespect by Jeff Joseph and other personnel. The school has also refused to speak to her family on the phone or email. The school has also disrespected her father, causing Jesse more mental anguish and emotional distress, intentionally inflicted by TJSL.
8. The last threat from TJSL was April 15, 2011 in an email in which they threatened to expel her from school, refuse to give Jesse her transcripts and not allow her to graduate or register for more classes. No action on their part has been taken, further preventing the progress of her career, causing Jesse to miss the deadline for taking the Bar exam, thereby increasing the financial and emotional burden on her family.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

4. This Court has subject matter jurisdiction.

5. Defendants, directly and indirectly, singly and in concert, have made use of the means and instrumentalities of mail and interstate commerce in connection with the transactions, acts and courses of educational business alleged herein, certain of which have occurred within the District of Utah.
6. Venue for this action is proper in the District of Utah because certain transactions, acts, practices and courses of business alleged in this Complaint took place in this district and because Jesse resides in this district and because certain of the defendants transact business in this district.
